

ANNOUNCEMENT

Pitcairn Partners and Kinetic Insights are pleased to announce the formation of their new operational agreement. Under the terms of this agreement, both firms are becoming strategic partners and will promote and utilize each other services.

The portfolio of services offered by the firms include key aspects of human capital management spectrum:

- Talent Mapping and Assessment
- Leadership Development
- Executive Coaching
- Executive Search
- On-Boarding Services
- Team Effectiveness Coaching

Firm profiles:

Pitcairn Partners, a global management consulting firm with offices in Washington DC, Houston, and Phoenix, transforms the way their clients assess and acquire their leaders and ensures a stronger talent base to deliver better business results. This is achieved through a disciplined and quantitative five-stage process that facilitates solving the toughest talent problems and helping organizations fulfill their most ambitious business goals.

For more Information, visit www.pitcairnpartners.com

Kinetic Insights partners with leaders and organizations to generate quantum shifts in awareness, alignment, focus and collaboration that empower them to compete effectively in a rapidly changing environment. These shifts are achieved through 3 focused solution areas: Leader Effectiveness, Team Effectiveness, and Culture Development. For over 13 years, Kinetic Insights has utilized experienced executives certified as coaches, facilitators and advisors to transform individuals into focused and aligned teams with agility and resilience.

For more information, visit www.kineticinsights.com